The G200 Youth Forum will be one of the largest international events organized for young leaders from around 200 countries in 2016, and about 500 young leaders, members of parliaments and young parliamentarians, students and academics, representatives of the business world, governments and international organizations will be participating in it.

The G200 Youth Forum 2016 has 4 main platforms which will run in tandem with each other:

- ✓ G200 Youth Summit – resulting in the Communiqué;
- ✓ Conference – with publication of academic articles in the Conference Proceedings;
- ✓ International Young Parliamentarians' Debate – with Joint Statement;
- ✓ Joint Sessions – Results.

The G200 Youth Forum 2016 Final Results will be disseminated across the world and shared, in particular, with the heads of 193 states and 70 leading international organizations, such as the UN, IMF, World Bank, OECD, European Commission, African Union, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation, Association of Southeast Asian Nations, Arab League, Union of South American Nations, and others.

The presentations by academics and students will be followed by discussions.

The Conference adds value not only to the world leaders' efforts in responding to the global economic and financial challenges, but also it serves as a unique opportunity for the participants to gather together in an exchange of ideas and best practice, encouraging stronger personal and professional relationships.
