OUR HISTORY

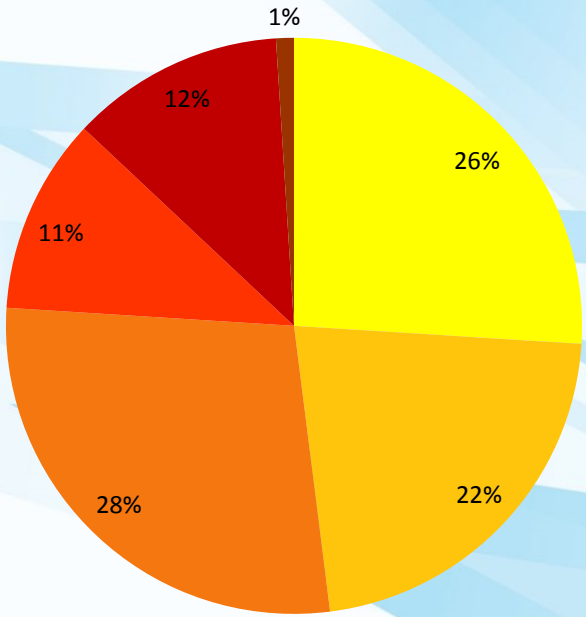

The unique concept of the event was created in 2005 by Ksenia Khoruzhnikova, Founder and President of the G200 Association. The concept was realized as the G8 Youth Summit in 2006 in St. Petersburg and continued in subsequent years transformed in G20 Youth Summit first, in G20 Youth Forum second and in G200 Youth Forum later:

2006 – G8 Youth Summit – Russia (Saint-Petersburg);
2007 – G8 Youth Summit – Germany (Berlin);
2008 – G8 Youth Summit – Japan (Tokyo);
2009 – G8 Youth Summit – Italy (Milano);
2010 – G20 Youth Summit – Canada (Vancouver);
2011 – G20 Youth Summit – France (Paris);
2012 – G20 Youth Summit – USA (Washington D.C.);
2013 – G20 Youth Forum – Russia (Saint-Petersburg):
2014 – G20 Youth Forum – Germany (Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Bavaria);
2015 – G200 Youth Forum – Germany (Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Bavaria).

In total: more than 4500 attendants in 10 years from around 200 countries.

G200 YOUTH SUMMIT

What is the G200 Youth Summit?

It is an international non-governmental project. Annually, we select around 150-200 best students and young experts in the field of international relations, economics, finance and law who are eligible to become young head of state or ministers in the national youth delegations to the G200 Youth Summit.
The result of a 3-day G200 Youth Summit will be the final Communiqué (recommendations) discussed and approved by the participants which will reflect the view of young leaders on key issues in social and economic fields that have paramount importance for the young generation.
The Communiqué will be disseminated throughout the world and shared, in particular, with the Heads of 193 States and 70 leading international organizations such as UN, IMF, World Bank, OECD, European Commission, African Union, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation, Association of South-East Asian Nations, Arab League, Union of South American Nations, and others.

What is the Purpose of the G200 Youth Summit?

- ✓ To involve young leaders from all over the world in resolving the most pressing economic and social problems of the moment;
- ✓ To establish an intercultural dialogue;
- ✓ To build business partnerships and friendships.

Delegation list:

• Heads of States; • Sherpas; • Ministers of Economy; • Ministers of Finance;	• Ministers of International Affairs; • Ministers of Environment; • Ministers of Development;	• Ministers of Social Affairs; • Ministers of Culture; • Ministers of Education; • Journalist.

All applicants to the G200 Youth Summit should select 2 Committees (priority 1 and priority 2) and 3 positions within each committee (Head's of State, Sherpa's, Journalist or Ministerial position). G200 Association will appoint each candidate to the selected Committees and to the selected Positions after the receipt of the participation fee.
The delegates participate only in one Committee and in one set position (and act according to one position he or she was appointed by the G200 Association). No more than 2 delegates from one country can participante in the same Committee.

INTERNATIONAL YOUNG PARLIAMENTARIANS' DEBATE

What is the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate?

It is a meeting of members of state parliaments and youth parliaments from different countries, who are under 45 years of age, with the purpose of exchanging ideas and experience in all the aspects of creating and implementing legislation.
At the conclusion of the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate a joint statement and declaration of cooperation between all the young parliamentarians from around 200 countries will be issued.

What is the Purpose of the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate?

✓ To encourage and develop cooperation between young parliamentarians with the view to exchanging ideas and experience in all the aspects of creating legislation;
✓ To define issues of specific relevance to young parliamentarians and how these issues relate to the broader interests of different countries;
✓ To mutually benefit from each others experiences in the life of a parliamentarian;
✓ To create a platform for interaction between young parliamentarians and to facilitate easier cooperation on a day to day basis over a wide range of issues. In the future this platform will develop as a mechanism whose purpose will be to foster and examine new ideas and initiatives, which then will go forward to international legislative bodies and NGOs.

What is the Format of the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate?

The general group will divide into 5 debating committees:

1. Committee on women's rights, family, child support, and welfare;
2. Committee on sport and youth policy, culture, education and media;
3. Committee on legal framework/ international law;
4. Committee on business and entrepreneurship, innovations and energy;
5. Committee on local development, sustainability, transport and tourism.

Who can participate in the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate?

- ✓ Any member of a federal, regional or city Parliament;
- ✓ Any member of a federal, regional or city Youth Parliament;
- ✓ Aged between 18 and 45;
- ✓ Good communications skills in English.
